

Derek Sanderson Jeter

Nicknames Mr. November, The Capitan, Captain Clutch, or DJ

Shortstop New York Yankees 1995 to 2014

Bats right and throws right

June 26, 1974 in Pequannock, New Jersey

44 years old

Went Central High School Kalamazoo, Michigan

Dwight Gooden a former teammate of Derek Jeter said he was confident but not cocky.

Everyone talks about legacy on the field but legacy off the field is more important.

In 2011 returned to Kalamazoo Central High School to dedicated the field which was named

Derek Jeter field number 13 in high school

KC maroon Giants was the team name of his high school

The house I grew up in is on the other side of that fence," Jeter said. "I used to jump the fence to come to school and to get to this field probably spent more time on this field playing baseball with my family than I did with my team.

senior year there were times when about 30 scouts were in the bleachers."

Washington was one of the driving forces behind the field dedication.

legacy has a strong impact on how we get students to understand the importance of education
He was very focused and a lot of fun to be around.

things came easy for him, and he worked hard at the things that didn't come easy.

He was a great role model, a nice kid, and he was very smart, so it was a natural fit.

"He wore a gold chain with the Yankees emblem around his neck," Baca added. "His ultimate dream was to play shortstop for the Yankees

"Derek's sense of confidence and calm demeanor have never changed from high school

After our practices came to an end, Derek would almost always ask me to hit more ground balls to him, and trust me when I tell you, it was hard to get him to go home

Newhouser, who had been a scout for nearly four decades, strongly petitioned Astros brass to select Jeter with the No. 1 overall choice in the 1992 Draft.

Jeter, who he predicted would someday be the foundation for championship teams

In 1991, Derek had a .557 batting average, and he batted .508 in 1992," Zomer said. "And he struck out once

Jeter's Leaders, as the group is called, presents Washington with a $10,000 check on behalf of the Turn 2 Foundation,

He is the founder of Turn 2 foundation which helps underprivileged kids in his community that he grew up in.

He would spend his summer in New Jersey with his grandma and always dreamed about being a shortstop for the New York Yankees

TRADING CARD CREATOR

Derek Jeter
Create Your Own

Click insert

1 Personal Information

Background Before Pro
Born June 26, 1974 in Pequannock, New Jersey. High School went to Central High School in Kalamzoo, Michigan 44 years old

Player information and Nicknames called
New York Yankees Shortstop from 1995 to 2014, Throws: right bats: right Mr.November, The Captain, Captain Clutch, or DJ

2 High School

Recruiters said about Jeter
Derek would not sign right out of high school with the yankees unless they gave Kalamzoo High School and clubs equipment.

Samurai Representation
He always putting others before him. By making sure the people who built him to be hte player hs were were taking care of.

by: Ashley Blaine

FLIP

Start Over

Finish Editing

Edit the information on your card.

1. Personal Information

Background Before Pro

m

Born June 26, 1974 in Pequannock, New Jersey. High School went to Central High School in Kalamzoo, Michigan 44 years oldw

Player infomation and Nicknames called

m

New York Yankees Shortstop from 1995 to 2014, Throws: right bats: right Mr.November, The Captain, Captain Clutch, or DJ

Edit Topic

Open Save

TRADING CARD CREATOR

Derek Jeter
Create Your Own

3 Leadership on the field

Captain
He always is the 1st to practice and the last to leave and always cleaned up the gear. He has never been kicked out of a game.

All keys to being a Samurai
He loved the game so much he should the passion for baseball. Jeter was a silent leader and lead by his actions and dedication

4 Leadership off the field

Helping Kalamzoo his Hometown
He always made sure to help kids in Kalamzoo by giving them Christmas gifts and helping run the big brothers and big sisters.

Having a Scholarship which part of his pay goes to
Along with building a sponsor box and scoreboard and dugouts and fixing any problems that occur with the field.

5 Derek Jeter

Samuari
Always wanting to help, build up the younger community, he has the ability to clear his mind and just forget what he learned

Representation
He just did want came naturally. He always was working to improve himself as a player. Always loved the game.

FLIP

Start Over

Finish Editing

Edit the information on your card.

3. Leadership on the field

Captain

M

He always is the 1st to practice and the last to leave and always cleaned up the gear. He has never been kicked out of a game.

All keys to being a Samurai

m

He loved the game so much he should the passion for baseball. Jeter was a silent leader and lead by his actions and dedication

Edit Topic

Open Save

Cal Edwin Ripken Nicknames Iron Man or Rip Junior Shortstop and Third Baseman 1981 to 2001 with the Baltimore Orioles

Bats right and throws right

6ft 4 inches 200lb

August 24, 1960 Havre de Grace Maryland

58 years old

Went to Aberdeen HS in Aberdeen, MD

Cal Ripken play 21 seasons and 3,184 hits, 431 home runs, 1,695 runs batted in over that time. He has one two golden gloves for his defense and was 19 time all star player and twice he was named the American League's most valuable player. He had a streak of playing in 2,632 games going over Lou Gehrig's. He moved a lot as kid since his father is Cal Ripken Sr. and was a manager for the Baltimore Orioles. He know though helps other professional players that are new and starting up at the position he plays and explains what to do and giving the different tips of how to improve and how much training they should be doing and other things like that. He would training hours on end with his dad and he often got to practice with the pro players which helped him become as good as he was for that he was training with the pro's rather than kids his age due to the factor of always moving.

TRADING CARD CREATOR Open Save

Edit the information on your card.

3 Leadership on the field

Iron Man
He came always ready to play no matter what. He has the greatest streak of games in a row even if he was injured.

Samurai Ways
He had passion and dedication for the sport and always made sure to improve himself constantly. He did the 1000 hits a day.

4 Leadership off the field

Helping making sure the youth prepared for pro
He has a baseball setup of a couple fields in the south where kids play games and have camps and has his own league like LL

Helping underprivileged youth
If kids can't afford to pay for his camp he makes sure they are able to come. he always wants to be able to help kids learn BB.

5 Cal Ripken Jr.

Samurai ways
He thought baseball was about character and effort not just about how good your are it is about passion and love for it.

Impact on people
He was always at the camp coming up and offering to help kids whether stuggling or not and making sure to build character.

FLIP

3. Leadership on the field 🔒

Iron Man 🔒

m 🔒

He came always ready to play no matter what. He has the greatest streak of games in a row even if he was injured.

Samurai Ways 🔒

m 🔒

He had passion and dedication for the sport and always made sure to improve himself constantly. He did the 1000 hits a day.

Edit Topic ⏪ ⏩

Start Over Finish Editing

TRADING CARD CREATOR Open Save

Edit the information on your card.

Cal Ripken Jr.
Create Your Own

1 Personal Infomation

Background Before Pro
Born August 24, 1960 in Havre de Grace, Maryland High School went to Aberdeen High School in Aberdeen Maryland. He is 53

Player Information and Nicknames Called
Baltimore Orioles Shortstop and Thrid baseman 1981 to 2001 throws right and bats right nickames Iron man and Rip

2 High school

What he tells other shortstops now
It is a stressful environment. I have a believe in a little bit of Zen. Which is this actually part of what the Samurai beliefs are Zen.

Samurai Representation
It was about character, dedicaton, passion, training and love for the sport never giving up on the sport you love with you're heart.

by: Ashley Blaine

FLIP

1. Personal Infomation 🔒

Background Before Pro 🔒

m 🔒

Born August 24, 1960 in Havre de Grace, Maryland High School went to Aberdeen High School in Aberdeen Maryland. He is 53

Player Information and Nicknames Called 🔒

m 🔒

Baltimore Orioles Shortstop and Thrid baseman 1981 to 2001 throws right and bats right nickames Iron man and Rip

Edit Topic ⏪ ⏩

Start Over Finish Editing

Bo Porter Manager for the Houston Astros

Bo Porter (Marquis Donnell Porter) Manager for Houston Astros 2013 to 2014

He also played in the outfield, Bat right and throws right on the 1999 Chicago Cubs, 2000 Oakland Athletics, 201 Texas Rangers

6ft 2 inches, 195 lbs

Born July 5th 1972 in Newark, New Jersey

46 years old.

Went to Weequahic HS in Newark New Jersey

Went to University of Iowa (Iowa City, IA)

Manager for Two Years

Wins 110 Loses 190

Played for three years

As a young boy he got in trouble for breaking his neighbors window a lot so his neighbor gave him a paper to sign up for little league but his Mom couldn't afford it so his neighbor paid for his Little League along with taking him to practice twice a week and games when he need to be taken. It gave him the opportunity to go to yankees stadium and was able to meet players and say he wanted to be like them Major League Baseball players. He had made it to the Majors as a player and would later become a major league major. During his time as a manager he worked with an organization called The Stacey and Bo Porter SELF Foundation which is a nonprofit founded in 2012 which helps provide and support programs dedicated to improving and impacting the lives of others. SELF means Sports, Education, Life Skills, and Faith. In late 2017 he launched the Championship Dad's Club which helps provides and helps fathers to become the best dad's and parent the can be to their kids. His kids explained him as teaching him to be a man. He has always wanted to help improve live of other ever since he was younger. He had a spring training but also offered to and winter to make sure players where getting the right fitness like weight training and other things that are very important to becoming good players at this level. It is working hard on and off the field which is what matters. He told his players it is more about the effort you but and not as much as the skills you have along with the attitude you have on the field and the way you carry yourself as a player and for me as a manager.

The image shows a digital interface for creating trading cards. At the top, it says "TRADING CARD CREATOR" with a logo of a stack of cards. There are "Open" and "Save" buttons in the top right corner. The main area is split into two panels. The left panel shows a trading card for "Bo Porter" with a photo and text. The right panel is an editing interface for the card's content, titled "Edit the information on your card." It shows a list of sections: "1. Personal Information" and "2. Players thoughts of him". The "2. Players thoughts of him" section is expanded, showing a list of quotes from "Brett Oberholtzer" and "Luhnow and Crane". There are lock icons next to each section and quote. At the bottom of the editing panel, there are "Edit Topic" and "Finish Editing" buttons. A "Start Over" button is at the bottom left of the card preview. A "FLIP" arrow is at the bottom right of the card preview.

TRADING CARD CREATOR

Open Save

Bo Porter
Create Your Own

1 Personal Information
Maequis Donnell Porter
Born July 5, 1972 in Newark, NJ. He went to Weaquich HS in Newark, NJ. He played pro for multiple teams from 1999 to 2001
Manager
He has played for 3 different teams but we are specifically going to talk about him as a manager for the Houston Astros.

2 Players thoughts of him
Brett Oberholtzer
As a manager, you have to be that way I feel like. With a younger ball club in the major leagues, it works.
Luhnow and Crane
My focus is on managing and finishing the season strong and Porter is strong and trying to make the team listen and show up.

by: Ashley Blaine

FLIP

Start Over

Finish Editing

Edit the information on your card.

2. Players thoughts of him

Brett Oberholtzer

a

As a manager, you have to be that way I feel like. With a younger ball club in the major leagues, it works.

Luhnow and Crane

a

My focus is on managing and finishing the season strong and Porter is strong and trying to make the team listen and show up.

Edit Topic

Edit the information on your card.

3 His way of Coaching

Football Mentality Equals Intensity

Mnay people thing his style of coaching is intense but it is honesty his passion for the sport that shines through. He loved it

Roger Clemens

He gave his players a stern speech after he thought they were very disrespectful to Roger Clemens who came to speech.

4 Leadership off the field

SELF

Self is sports, education, life skills and faith. Which is dedicated to improving and impacted the youth of the world. Started 2012

Championship Dad's Club

In 2017 he started a program which provides and helps fathers to become the best dad's and parent they can be to their kids.

5 Samurai Representation

Helping the guy who made him who is today

He ended buying this guy a house in a retirement center which was in walking distanbe of a Little League field.

This showing that he respect his elder and still want to help and support the guy that made him the player he was.

3. His way of Coaching

Football Mentality Equals Intensity

m

Mnay people thing his style of coaching is intense but it is honesty his passion for the sport that shines through. He loved it

Roger Clemens

c

He gave his players a stern speech after he thought they were very disrespectful to Roger Clemens who came to speech.

Edit Topic

FLIP

Start Over

Finish Editing

Walt William Weiss Manager for the Colorado Rockies 2013 to 2016

He also played shortstop, bat both left and right, throws right, Baltimore Orioles drafted by them, 1987 to 1992 Oakland Athletics

1993 Florida Marlins

1994 to 1997 Colorado Rockies

1998 to 2000 Atlanta Braves

6ft, 175lbs

Born November 28, 1963 Tuxedo, New York

54 years old

Went to Suffern High School

Went to University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (Chapel Hill, NC)

Managed for four years

Wins 283 Loses 365 W-L .437 average and total for all four years

TRADING CARD CREATOR

Open

Save

Edit the information on your card.

3 His way of Coaching

Believe

He always wanted his players to have faith in their own batting style because thats what would get you to where you need to be

Passion and Character

Always wanted players that had passion along with a ability and effort and never knew when to quit and a positive outlook on life.

4 Leadership off the field

Helping at High School

He got over the pro's and wanted to help coach high school level and be able to have more time with his sons as they grew up

Out reach

He has made numerous donations to Watertown High School in New York and has a field rmed after him at the HS he went to

5 Samurai Representation

Building his son's up

He worked on improving and training all three of his sons while playing or coaching and wanted to make then the best people.

Labels

Passionate, Loving, respectful, always willing to help, training constently and love for what he does and how he does it.

FLIP

3. His way of Coaching

Believe

Question: (Does not show on card)

He always wanted his players to have faith in their own batting style because thats what would get you to where you need to be

Passion and Character

Question: (Does not show on card)

Always wanted players that had passion along with a ability and effort and never knew when to quit and a positive outlook on life.

Edit Topic

Start Over

Finish Editing

TRADING CARD CREATOR

Open

Save

Walt Weiss

Create Your Own

1 Personal Information

Walt William Weiss

Born: November 28, 1963 Tuxedo, New York and went to Suffern High School and University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill

Manager

He was a player for 4 different baseball teams and also managed the Colorado Rockies 2013 to 2016.

2 Players thoughts of him

Loved or hated

He was either loved or hated by the players he coached. They loved him for his effort but he made them do weird things

Passion

He always has had the love for the sport you will always see that passion and love and everything that comes with it in his eyes.

by: Ashley Blaine

FLIP

Edit the information on your card.

1. Personal Information

Walt William Weiss

Question: (Does not show on card)

Born: November 28, 1963 Tuxedo, New York and went to Suffern High School and University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill

Manager

Question: (Does not show on card)

He was a player for 4 different baseball teams and also managed the Colorado Rockies 2013 to 2016.

Edit Topic

Start Over

Finish Editing